Appomattox Band Greets Miss Virginia

It was a perfect fall day Saturday, and perfectly all right with the Appomattox High School band and majorettes that "Miss Virginia," Dorcas Campbell, paste with them. Occasion was the state championship jousting tournament in Farmville. Police estimated a crowd of 12,000 on hand to watch the parade. Appomattox was one of four bands that participated. Seen above are the eight majorettes with Miss Virginia in her convertible plus the drum majorette and band members in the background.

Board Defers Action

Jamerson Apparent Low Bid On Carver-Price Project

School Superintendent Earl J. Smith announced Monday that J. E. Jamerson and Son's bid of $227,880 for a proposed addition to Carver - Price School in Appomattox, makes them the apparent low bidder."

Smith and DeWitt Evans, school board chairman, reported on Wednesday, Oct. 9, to the Board of Supervisors, that 10 bids have been submitted for construction of 11 new classrooms, a library and auditorium. The supervisors deferred action until a meeting to be called later this month because of illness of F. L. Murphy, board chairman.

The supervisors heard a financial report on the proposed addition. A state Literary Fund loan of $200,000 has been made available for the project, Smith said.

Target date for completion of the work is September next year.

Supervisors Meet Tonight

A meeting of the school officials and supervisors has been scheduled for 7:30 p.m. tonight (Thursday) to continue study of the project.

Auxiliary Plans Local Calendar

The American Legion Auxiliary is planning an Appomattox Activity Calendar for the year 1964. All Civic Organizations and all Churches in the county have been contacted for meeting date listings and schedule of activities at the Appomattox High School will be included. Birthdays, Anniversaries, and memorials are now being solicited by the members. Any person whose birthday is listed on the calendar will be given a free fountain drink at Spencer's Drug Store. A free grease job will be given to each car owner (whose birthday is on the calendar) at either Moses Motor Co. or Grinels Motor Co. Oct. 25 is the deadline for sending information to Mrs. Clifford Harvey or Mrs. C. T. Moses, Jr. for the Calender.

This calendar will be on sale the last week in December, but orders are now being taken.

Concord P-TA Hears Dr. Fox

CONCORD — Dr. James Fox, faculty member of Lynchburg College, was guest speaker at Concord PTA meeting, held in the auditorium at Concord School.

Dr. Fox talked on Physical Fitness; education in its applications to the development and use of the body. He pointed out that the relationship of mental and physical growth were inseparable in creating self-control and emotional stability.

Mrs. W. E. Bondurant, Jr., program chairman, introduced the speaker.

At a business session a vote was favorable to sponsor a fall festival and spaghetti supper as a fund raising project.

Mrs. O. H. Jones, health chairman, was authorized to submit a written request to the proper authorities to plan for a clinic to administer serium to combat Rocky Mountain Spotted Tick fever, to be held at Concord School early in 1964.

W. S. Jones, president, reported the membership count. The number of PTA was 159, and said that the contest of cash awards for securing new members would continue until the last of October.

Mrs. Blanche Gough's 3-A grade received the room count award. Pamela Martin and Paxine Fleming, both 7th grade students, jointly conducted the devotions.

November meeting will be held on the 14th. Mrs. Thelma Burley Campbell County elementary supervisor, will be the guest speaker.

Appomattox Undefeated

Rebels—Bees Tie 13-13; Brosville Contest Friday

BROOKVILLE — On October 11th, the Appomattox Rebles met headon with the Brookville Bees. The long, hard fight ended in a 13-13 deadlock. Both teams rallied primarily on pass plays for their scoring punches. Brookville and Appomattox still remain undefeated in Group II, District IV contests.

This tie ball game puts Altavista in the conference lead followed by Appomattox and Brookville.

Brookville broke the ice with the first TD, a 29 yard pass from Buddy Moore to end Dave Anderson. Howard West's PAT kick was off of its mark.

The Rebels offense came back with a 31 yard pass from Jimmy Torrence to Doug Mitchell for their touchdown. Appomattox tried to run over for the extra point, but were stopped short of the goal. Half time came with the score tied 6 all.

The AHS Band was on hand, as well as Brookville's for entertainment.

With the opening of the second half the two teams fought hard and seemed to be evenly matched as neither could score in the third quarter. Early in the last stanza quarterback Jimmy Torrence fired his second touchdown pass of the night to Richard Smith. Torrence then flipped a pass to G. H. Jamerson for the conversion.

Rebel injuries were many in the last quarter as Brookville drove for their second and last tally followed by the extra point to tie the game 13-13. Here the score remained until the final gun.

The Rebels will travel to Brosville tomorrow night. Game time 8 p.m. Be sure and come to the game!

Appomattox	0	6	0	7—13
Brookville	6	0	0	7—13

Appomatox — TD Mitchell, 31 pass (run failed).
TD. Smith, 17 pass (Jamerson pass)
Brookville — TD Anderson, 20 pass (kick failed).
TD Mallow, 9 run (West kick)
